

NAME _____ DATE _____

CARD - CAREER INFORMATION

1. Within your field, choose a position that you will be interested in:

2. Using the library resources discussed, describe the major areas of responsibility for the position chosen.

3. List three skills you need to do this job effectively.

4. What is the minimum educational requirement for this position?

5. What is the average (starting) salary for the position?

6. What are the employment prospects or outlook for this position in the next five years?

7. Write the name and website address of a major professional association for your field of study.

8. Using one of the online resources addressed, locate a current vacancy related to your field of study. Name the:

Position: _____

Company: _____

Website: _____

9. Are there additional skills (other than those listed above) required for this vacancy? If so, what are they?

10. Identify the skills required by the position or job description that you do not have yet.
