

COMPANY INFORMATION RESOURCES

Consult Dun and Bradstreet's Million Dollar Directory,
REF HF 5035.D8 (5 Volumes) if you are looking for the following:

- Address
- Telephone Numbers
- Web Page/URL
- Names of Officers
- Number of Employees
- Sales Figures
- Products and Services
- SIC/NAICS Codes
- Affiliates and Subsidiaries

The following online resources contain much of the above information, as well as more detailed information about:

- Company History
- Performance
- Competitors
- Financial Information
- Ticker Symbols

Hoover's Online

Comprehensive company, industry, and marketplace intelligence on public and private companies

Mergent Online

Features include customizable reports and detailed financial information on publicly held companies

ReferenceUSA

Detailed information on thousands of public and private companies in the technology sector (also available in print)

Academic Universe (Lexis-Nexis) – Provides news and information relating to industries and individual companies

If you are looking for current news articles about a company, you may wish to search the following database (accessible via the Library Databases page):

ProQuest -- Access to company information and articles from journals in the fields of Computers, Networking, Telecommunications, and Business

Ebscohost – Articles from general and business journals and magazines.

Current and historical stock price information can be found via a number of sources, including:

Yahoo Finance: <http://finance.yahoo.com>

Bigcharts: <http://www.bigcharts.com/historical/>

Databases are available via the library site: <http://nj.devry.edu/library/databases.html>.
Please ask a librarian for a list of passwords to access the databases from home.