

Web site analysis

Name _____ Date _____

Author's name _____

Title of web page/website _____

Copyright date/date of last revision _____

Name of organization (where applicable) _____

Date of access _____

URL _____

What makes the author(s) an authority on the subject?

Is there any contact information listed other than an email address? _____

Are the sources of information listed so they can be verified? In what form?

Is the purpose of this site clearly listed? Why did the author spend the time to produce this site?

Are the sponsors of the site (if any) clearly listed? Is the content biased in any way?

How useful would this site be for your research? Explain.
